25 MAY 1961

Dear John:

In addition to the formal and official observances of your retirement in which we have participated together, I want to send you a personal word of thanks for all that you have done for us.

You have every reason to look back with pride and satisfaction on your seventeen years of service with the Government. The ten years that you have devoted to this Agency have been years of growth and development, and during this formative period your broad experience and sound advice have been most needed and helpful. I am indeed grateful to you for your devotion and loyalty.

Please accept my very best wishes for the fullest enjoyment of the many years ahead.

Faithfully yours,
